

Zoila Vichot Sá nchez, R.N.

Ph.D. Candidate

University of Tennessee Health Science Center

Research Interests

My research interests include (1) a program of research that involves improving health outcomes in the Hispanic population through health promotion, culturally sensitive interventions, and rigorous research and (2) instrument development with validation (psychometric properties).

Back to Membership Directory

Last updated 9/16/04